Section C - Capital Income and Expenditures

Capital income is intended to pay for large one-time library purchases. This section should not reflect any income or expenditure used for the regular operations of the library. If your library had any major one-time capital expenditures during FY21 report them in this section. Otherwise, skip to section D.

For Capital Income and Expenditures

Show all sources of capital funds for FY21 (July 1, 2020 - June 30, 2021).

If your library does not receive capital income from a source, enter a 0 (zero).

If your library receives capital income from a source, but the amount is unknown, enter N/A.

Report all capital income and expenditures in whole dollars only. Round to the nearest dollar.

For Capital Income

Report all income for major capital expenditures, by source of income. Include funds received for:

- Site acquisition
- New buildings, additions to buildings, or renovation of library buildings
- Furnishings, equipment, and initial collections for new buildings, additions, or renovations
- Major building updates or repairs including roof, painting, carpeting, furnace, central air, etc.
- New computer hardware and software used to support library operations, link to networks, or run information products
- Replacement and repair of existing furnishings and equipment
- New vehicles
- Other major one-time projects

DO NOT REPORT INCOME FOR:

- Regular purchase of library materials - Report in section D
- Payments for regular operating costs such as utilities, insurance, etc. - Report in section D
- Investments for capital appreciation
- Income passed through to another agency
- Funds unspent in the previous fiscal year (e.g., carryover).

Did your library have any major one-time capital projects in FY21?

NO - Skip to section D.	Yes	Yes
YES - check the box and click the SAVE button to display questions C01 - C06.

Section G - Program Attendance and Other Services

Program Attendance

When reporting the number of programs, count the total number of events. A story time held once a week for a year is counted as 52, not as one.

When reporting attendees, count total number of attendees regardless of the age. A children's program attended by 10 children and 10 adults is counted as 20, not as 10.

Live, virtual programs are conducted via a Web conferencing or webinar platform during which a library staff member (or other party sponsored by the library) is presenting to or interacting with an audience in real-time. These are considered programs for survey purposes and should be added into programming counts as indicated below.

Recordings of program content include video or audio recordings created by a library staff person (or other party sponsored by the library) and posted to a video or audio hosting platform for the audience to view or list to on-demand. Do not include promotional or marketing content. Recordings of program content are counted separately as indicated below.

Programs designed for adults, families, cross generational, all-ages, etc. should be reported on lines G13 TO G18.

Section I - COVID 19 related questions

The following questions were added in the FY20 survey in order to assess the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on library services. The impact extended into FY21, so we will continue with most of these questions this year. Answer Yes or No to the following questions if you know for sure that you provided the listed service or not. If you aren't sure, leave the question blank.

I01	Were any of the library's outlets physically closed to the public for any period of time due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic? (YES/NO)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hours open clarification: An outlet is considered physically closed when the public cannot access any library buildings or bookmobiles, regardless of staff access.
