

James Kennedy Public Library Proctoring Policy

Purpose:

To meet the needs of students and institutions of higher learning, the James Kennedy Public Library agrees to cooperate with patrons and institutions to support their lifelong learning goals by offering proctoring services. This service is based on the availability of personnel, facilities, and technology to do so. As such, the following responsibilities are set out.

Responsibilities of the Student:

The student will ask the library staff to proctor the exam.

The student is responsible for providing a copy of this policy to the educational institution if needed.

The student is responsible for making arrangements to take the exam including calling the library to make sure the test has arrived (electronically or via mail) and scheduling a time to take the test. The student will schedule the exam time to end no less than 30 minutes before the closing of the library.

The student is responsible for ensuring that the computer resources at the library are adequate and available for test taking.

The student will provide a valid driver's license or photo ID (if required) for verification of identity or the test will not be proctored.

The student will arrive prepared with the necessary or required supplies to take the exam. These supplies will be made available for approval by the proctor if required.

The student is responsible for any direct costs related to taking this test. These costs may include: printing, return postage and envelope for any exam which does not include a self-addressed stamped envelope, cost to fax test to the institution.

Completed exams to be mailed will be handled with other library mail.

Responsibilities of the Library and staff:

The library staff will provide the student with a copy of this policy.

A library staff person will proctor the exam. Specific librarians will not be assigned to proctor specific exams.

The proctor will observe the student while performing other tasks and assisting other patrons. Proctoring at the library will include issuing the exam, being aware of the student taking the exam, periodically observing the student, and signing the proctor form and mailing, emailing or faxing the completed exam. If an institution requires the student to receive constant uninterrupted observation the library will be unable to proctor the exam.

The staff person who begins proctoring the exam may not be at the Circulation Desk when the exam is finished. The student may be returning the exam to a different librarian than the one who issued the exam to the student.

The librarian will not sign the name of another librarian on the proctoring form or the exam. The James Kennedy Public Library will not proctor an exam for which the signature of only one designated person is acceptable.

Library staff will not sign any statement required by the educational institution inconsistent with our policy or with how the test was administered.

Library staff may loan the use of a laptop computer if necessary to administer the exam. The library does not allow the installation of any special software that may be needed to complete the exam on a library computer.

Library staff may refuse to proctor an exam too burdensome or exacting in its demands.

The library cannot provide proctoring for a group of students.

The library is not responsible if the website or email is not working.

The library is not responsible for exams that are lost by the postal system or electronically.

The library will not keep copies of the completed exams.

Approved 5/2013