

Read, Renew, Repeat Adult Summer Library Program

Have fun reading, attending programs, participating in activities, and using library services to earn prizes!!!

- For ages 18 or older with a James Kennedy Public Library card.
- Sign up in person at the library.
- Participants receive a book bag, bookmark and free book just for signing up.
- Earn prizes by doing any of the following activities:
 - ⇒ Reading or listening to books, newspapers and magazines
 - ⇒ Participating in programs and activities
 - ⇒ Using library services such as Mango (learning a language), Ancestry (genealogy), Brainfuse (jobs and homework help), and AtoZ World Culture (travel). These are examples—others available! Check out our website or ask a librarian.
- Completed activities should be tracked below
- For each box filled, the participant’s name will be entered into a drawing for prizes. For every four items completed, participants will be able to select a prize from the prize box or a book for their home library. Participants completing at least sixteen activities, which must include reading at least four books, will have completed the program. They will earn a special prize and have their name entered into the grand prize drawings.
- Participants may continue earning prizes throughout the summer but are only eligible for one grand prize entry.

Select June programs for adults; and all ages

Read, Renew, Repeat - Reading Recommendations! June - August. When you finish a book you love, pick up a “Read This” bookmark and share why it should be read. Give the bookmark to a staff member to get your name entered into a drawing for a JKPL themed swag bag! Staff will put the bookmark in the appropriate book and display them in the library for others to discover and enjoy!

Reduce, Renew, Repeat: How do you practice conservation? June 1-30. The summer library programs focus on conservation, self-improvement, and self-preservation so each month this summer you are invited to respond to a question related to this topic. June’s question is: What do you do with things you no longer need? Select an answer at each visit to be entered into a special prize drawing.

Elder Fraud Prevention with MidWestOne Bank: Tuesday, June 4 @ 2:00 pm. Fraud happens every day, and those over the age of 65 are often targeted. That’s why we’re excited to offer this opportunity for you to learn how to protect yourself. Receive tips to stay safe and avoid the frustration and possible financial loss from fraudulent activity. Presented by Justine Bemis from MidWestOne Bank.

Dyersville Public Works Equipment Exhibition: Tuesday, June 4 from 9:00 to 11:00 am. Celebrate National Public Works Week (May 19-25) by coming to this equipment exhibit. Get up close with and learn about the street sweeper/vacuum, end-loader, skid-loader, utility crane, and more. Videos on the services Public Works provides, as well as how Dyersville’s water and wastewater systems operate will be shown and there is a special scavenger hunt challenge available! All ages welcome. Guests will receive a fire hydrant stress reliever (while supplies last) and refreshments will be provided. (Rescheduled from May 21st.)

Historic US Route 20 Movie Road Trip: Mondays, June 10, 17, 24, July 1, 8, 15, 22, and 29 @ 6:30 pm. Join us every Monday in June and July to enjoy a movie “road trip” where we will watch a movie that was filmed along Historic US Route 20. Heidi Huisman, a member of the Historic US Route 20 Association, will give a brief presentation prior to each showing. The series includes The Pajama Game, Children of the Corn, Nebraska, Field of Dreams, True Adventures of Wolfboy, It’s a Wonderful Life, Taking Woodstock, and Frozen Stiff, an episode from Murder She Wrote. Popcorn and soda are provided but you are welcome to bring your own snacks. Find out more about US Route 20 at <https://historicroute20.org/>

Virtual Author Visit Series: Tuesday, June 11 and Wednesday, June 12. The 2024 All Iowa Reads (AIR) authors will discuss their 2024 selections at these virtual presentations. Diane Wilson, author The Seed Keeper presents at 6:30 pm on June 11. Celia Perez, author of Tumble, speaks at 2 pm on June 12. Samira Ahmed, author of Hollow Fires, will speak at 4 pm on June 12. Guests are welcome to come to the JKPL or participate from home. To participate at home please register at: www.statelibraryofiowa.gov/index.php/AIR.

Woodland Art - Creativity with Pen & Ink: Tuesday, June 11 @ 6:00 pm. Join Dianne Kramer for an imaginary walk in the woods. Participants will learn to draw a variety of woodland flowers and will then design a woodland scene. All drawings will be demonstrated step-by-step. This class is designed for adults and registration is required by June 8. Participants will need to bring the following supplies: pencil, eraser, fine black felt-tipped pen, and colored pencils. Come to the library to see a display of the types of drawings we’ll do in class!

Iowa Legal Aid presents Medicaid/Title 19: Thursday, June 13 @ 6:30 pm. This presentation is focused on Iowa’s Medicaid program with regard to nursing home care and the Elderly Waiver Program. We will also discuss Iowa’s Medicaid Estate Recovery program. This presentation aims to equip attendees with a deeper understanding of these pivotal Medicaid components, fostering informed decision-making and effective utilization of available resources. All are welcome. Questions encouraged.

Summer Tea: Sunday, June 23 from 2:00 to 3:30 pm. Grab a friend and come to our Summer Tea! Enjoy delicious tea and delicate cookies and bars served on real china. Lemonade will be provided for the non-tea drinkers. All ages are welcome but children under the age of 15 require an adult companion. We encourage you to wear a hat! Sponsored by the JKPL Senior Advisory Committee.

No-Sew T-shirt Tote Bag: Thursday, June 27 from 5:30 to 7:30 pm. Drop in at the JKPL for this special upcycling event! Participants will turn a t-shirt into a handy tote bag with no sewing required. All supplies provided. Make your bag at the library or take the supplies home. Take-and-make kits will be available while supplies last. This program is for adults and older teens but children are welcome with an adult.

Arts and Crafts Swap: Saturday, June 29 from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. Are you looking for new or gently used craft or art supplies for your next project? Or have items you no longer need? Members of the community may bring good, new, and gently used items to the library between June 8 and 28. Then come back on the 29th and pick out what you need for your next project. Swaps are a great way to declutter your home, keep things out of the landfill, and save a little money! Items not taken by swappers may be saved for the next swap, donated, recycled, or used for JKPL activities. Houseware, toys and games, and décor swaps are planned for the summer.

Trash or Treasure with Heidi: Sunday, June 30 @ 2:00 pm. Do you have treasure hiding in your house? Or is it really just trash? Come to this special event where Heidi Huisman from Savvy Salvage will bring examples, demonstrate what to look for, and share resources to help you determine if you have trash or treasure. She will also examine items brought in by program attendees and share her opinion on their value and how she would research the item. Guests may bring one or two items each, but no coins or expensive jewelry. Bringing a smartphone or laptop computer to follow along is encouraged but not required. Registration is not required but those wanting to bring an item for evaluation are should notify the JKPL in advance to ensure their items will be examined.
